Hey Blowfish Dude:

Eat a dick up til u hiccup!!! graciously with love, perry fosters bbq cashier xo xo baby

My Reply:

Gary: Well, I'm not sure how to respond to that suggestion, except to say this probably relates to the review I wrote of Perry Foster's BBQ on my website. Are you the owner or an employee? If you're an employee, you may want to ask Mr. Foster if this response to my review is the official company position, or your own personal response?

As you may know from your visit to my website, I usually post my hate mail in its entirety under the "GB's Hate Mail" section. I believe in an open exchange of ideas.

If this is an official company response, all I can say is " Eat a Dick Up Til U Hiccup" would make a lovely slogan for your BBQ house, as my dining and service experience at your restaurant was consistent with that type of disdain for customer satisfaction.

Better yet, how bout "Eat a Cold and Greasy Dick Up Til U Hiccup?"
That would be more accurate still.

Equally graciously with love,
George Blowfish
